

The 2011 C.R.A.S.H.-B. Sprints

T-Shirt Design Contest

Last year, Anna Walker came up with a cool logo that was used for the official C.R.A.S.H.-B. t-shirt and program. This is a tough act to follow, but we hope that another artist can answer the call for 2011! After all, it's the 30th year of the World Indoor Rowing Championships...

Contest Info

What: Design a logo that incorporates indoor rowing on the Concept2 Ergometer, Boston, the 30th anniversary of The C.R.A.S.H.-B. Sprints, and anything else your creative little minds can come up with in relation to the event.

When: The submission deadline is January 4, 2011, at midnight.

Where: Email entries to gcuddy@crash-b.org.

Who: Everyone is welcome to enter this contest and there is a cash prize. Please note that your artwork, if accepted, becomes the property of The C.R.A.S.H.-B. Sprints and may be thoroughly exploited in every way, shape, and form imaginable. It's likely that we'll just put it on the shirts and programs, though, so don't get too excited. We also reserve the right to make slight alterations and color changes to your work to make it aesthetically pleasing with the t-shirt color options.

How: Please submit your artwork in .pdf format if possible.

For further information, visit our web site at crash-b.org.

Questions? Contact George at 617.893.0292.